

Neil Howard Telecoms becomes a Plantronics Certified Partner

Blackburn, Lancashire - September 24th, 2007: Neil Howard Telecoms today announced that they have become a Plantronics Certified Partner.

Plantronics headsets are widely used in many Fortune 500 corporations and have been featured in numerous films and high profile events, including the historic "One small step for man" transmission from the moon in 1969.

Plantronics offers mobile headsets to address the cordless and mobile phone market, next-generation computer audio headset products for computer applications and corded and cordless headsets and systems for the office, small office/home office and contact centres.

Howard Jones, Managing Director at Neil Howard Telecoms "We are delighted to have Plantronics as a partner. As people work in increasingly diverse ways and environments, there are different options for individuals and organisations to choose the way they want to work. Whether you are wearing a headset all day, every day or just occasionally, or whether your are in a noisy call centre or in private office, you will find a Plantronics headset solution."

Neil Howard Telecoms was established in 1985 and has over 20 years of experience in telecommunications. They work to a simple philosophy. Listen to the needs of each customer and help them to choose the best communications solution: From Voice to Landline & IP Telephony, Data and Vehicle Tracking, guaranteeing total satisfaction.

The shared vision of every one of their employees is their biggest asset.

Karen Nash, Reseller Manager - North at Plantronics "As a Connect Plantronics Partner, we would be working together supporting and helping Neil Howard Telecoms to grow their business."
