

Neil Howard Telecoms becomes a Panasonic Business Partner

Blackburn, Lancashire - January 9th 2008: Neil Howard Telecoms today announced that they have become a Panasonic Business Partner.

Panasonic UK was established in 1972. Since then the company has grown substantially and become a leading supplier of consumer and business related electronics products.

Its headquarters is located in Bracknell, Berkshire and this is supported by a national Logistics Centre in Northampton.

The company currently employs more than 500 staff and has an annual turnover in excess of £700m.

Panasonic's parent company, Matsushita Electric Industrial Co Ltd, has also established a number of manufacturing plants in the UK and in total the company now employs around 4,000 people in the UK.

The UK operation is part of a significant European presence, both in manufacturing, sales and R&D which now employs some 15,000 people in total.

Howard Jones, Managing Director at Neil Howard Telecoms, said "We are delighted to have joined forces with Panasonic. IP Telephony has embraced new products and services for companies willing to take on board new technology in a very cost-effective way. In order to fulfil this new demand, we are partnering with companies that can accomplish it, such as Panasonic."

Neil Howard Telecoms was established in 1985 and has over 20 years of experience in telecommunications. They work to a simple philosophy; Listen to the needs of each customer and help them to choose the best communications solution: From Voice to Landline & IP Telephony, Data and Vehicle Tracking, guaranteeing total satisfaction.

The shared vision of every one of their employees is their biggest asset.

Dave Crampton, UK Distribution Manager at Panasonic, said "The Panasonic telephony range fully complements the extensive product portfolio which Neil Howard Telecoms offers it's growing customer base. We are confident Neil Howard Telecoms will enjoy new heights of business success via their local distribution partner and wish them our very best wishes for the future."
